

2024 Kansas Authors Club Literary Contest (updated 3/17/2024)

Contest opens April 1, 2024 and closes June 15, 2024

Submit online at kansasauthorsclub.submittable.com

Theme contest pays $50, $25 and $15, with two unpaid honorable mentions. All other categories will be awarded three places: $25, $15, and $10, with two unpaid honorable mentions. Awards for Poet of the Year and Prose Writer of the Year will be selected by the contest chairs.

Categories Note: There will be a variation in categories from year to year based on quantity of entries and input from judges and club members.

PROSE CATEGORIES

- 1. Theme Contest: “Words Take Flight: Choose Your Own Adventure” (fiction or nonfiction) Limit 1,500 words. May be written in any genre so long as it relates to the conference theme. Demonstrates creativity in the form of new viewpoints, fresh writing techniques and captivating content.
- 2. Humor: (fiction or nonfiction) Limit 1,000 words. A story that produces amusement or laughter using any number of established or invented literary devices, styles and tones.
- 3. Memoir or Inspirational: (nonfiction) Limit 1,500 words. A story based on personal experience that tells of a significant experience in one's life. The piece evokes a special time, place and memory, and is told in literary rather than merely chronological fashion. The piece should demonstrate an intellectual, spiritual or emotional turning point.
- 4. Flash Fiction: Limit 500 words. A complete story in a much-abbreviated form, often told in vivid scenes. Usually involves three or fewer characters engaging in inner or outward conflict. Some aspects remain unspoken or imply a larger story. The ability to show, rather than merely tell, is one of the form's literary qualities.
- 5. Stories Written for Young Readers: Designate intended reader age at top right of manuscript as follows: preschool, early reader (5 to 7), middle grades (8-12), YA (14-19) (entry may be fiction or nonfiction) Limit 1,000 words. All genres, styles and storytelling techniques are allowed.
- 6. Short Story: (fiction) Limit 1,500 words. An invented narrative shorter than a novel but with a fully developed theme, usually including only a few characters involved in the plot. All genres are allowed.
- 7. Playwriting: (fiction or non-fiction) A total of four pages for Act 1, Scene 1 and additional information (can be single-spaced). Script must include title and descriptions of cast, scenes, time/era, settings, curtain rise, dialogue, actions, stage directions and more. See details on format under Guidelines for Entering online.
- 8. First Chapter of a Book: (fiction or nonfiction) Limit 2,000 words. Must be from an unpublished work, e.g., a manuscript or work-in-progress. Author may include a separate 500-word book synopsis.
- 9. Rural Voices Category: (fiction or nonfiction) Limit 1,500 words. Rural people and life are often stereotyped and overlooked in writing and other forms of media, but rural life is more complex and diverse than what is often portrayed. We want to change that with the addition of this category to our contest. Write a piece (fiction or nonfiction) that tells a story about rural living and that represents the many and diverse ways of being and living rural.

POETRY CATEGORIES (limit poems to one page)

1. Theme Contest: The theme is “Words Take Flight: Choose Your Own Adventure” Any written poem that utilizes and expands this theme may enter. Classical and Japanese poems have specific forms, free verse and narrative poetry have a 40-line limit. Whimsy is limited to 20 lines. Please note the contest guidelines prohibit the same entry being entered in multiple categories.
2. Classical Poetry: Classic forms include the sonnet, blank verse, and the sestina.
3. Free Verse: Poems without a set rhyme or rhythm requirement. 40-line limit.
4. Narrative Poetry: Poems that tell a story. 40-line limit.
5. Whimsy: Light, humorous poetry, including limericks, shaped poems, and nonsense poems. 20-line limit.
6. Japanese Poetry: Japanese forms include haiku, tanka and renga.
7. Performance Poetry: Video entries for the spoken word poetry should be no longer than 3 minutes, performed by the writer, with no more than one minute of singing (or one-third of the total entry time). Accepted forms include but are not limited to Spoken Word, Cowboy Poetry, Song Lyrics (the exception to the 1-minute singing rule), and Other. Submissions by video need to be filmed in landscape format and uploaded to the Submittable website in video format. Acceptable formats include MPV, AVI, 3GP, WEBM, MKV, MOV, MPG, FLV, WMV, M4V.
8. New Poets: A category for poets who are beginning to write poetry. Entries are limited to poets who have not previously won a top-three place in the KAC State Poetry Contest. All forms accepted; 40-line limit.
9. Rural Voices Category: Any written poem that utilizes and expands this theme may enter. Follow line limits for above categories. Note that contest guidelines prohibit the same entry being entered in multiple categories. Rural people and life are often stereotyped and overlooked in writing and other forms of media, but rural life is more complex and diverse than what is often portrayed. We want to change that with the addition of this category to our contest. Write a piece (fiction or nonfiction) that tells a story about rural living and that represents the many and diverse ways of being and living rural.

Note: In addition to the awards of first, second, third place and honorable mentions within each prose and poetry category, an overall "Prose Writer of the Year" and "Poetry Writer of the Year" will be selected. This award is based on a points system assigned by placings. The contest managers will determine these winners, utilizing the three contest managers (adult prose, adult poetry, and youth) in the event of a tie or if consideration by a committee is deemed necessary.

Note: All prizes will be awarded to members and non-members at the annual KAC gathering in October. Prizes for winners who are unable to attend the convention will be delivered via district presidents or other KAC representatives and mailed when necessary.

For a list of the 2024 KAC Contest winners, check kansasauthorsclub.org after the October gathering.
